

BUSINESS VALUATION FOR ACCOUNTANTS

Are your clients needing an independent business valuation for strategic decision making, ATO, exit planning or dispute resolution purposes?

1. Does your professional indemnity insurance prevent you from undertaking those engagements?
2. Having trouble meeting the independence requirements of APES 225 when approached by your clients?
3. Are you lacking the staff or internal skillset, competency or capacity to undertake the work?

At Azimuth Partners we can assist you fill the void with a specialist skillset, competency and capacity to help undertake the work on behalf of your clients. Through outsourcing this work to Azimuth Partners, we will have the independence required to meet the requirements of APES 225 to assist your clients with their business valuation needs.

We can help you and your clients through the provision of expert and independent valuation services to:

- Alleviate significant legal costs in drawn out matrimonial disputes or commercial disputes between shareholders / business partners.
- Achieve a fair and commercial outcome to litigation matters.
- Provide an accurate and reliable valuation to assist with strategic decision making.

We can provide your clients with high quality valuation reports prepared in accordance with APES 225, International Valuation Standards and other Accounting Standards that will meet the requirements of ASIC, the ATO and the courts.

Our services are provided on a “fixed fee” basis agreed at the commencement of the engagement and in most cases, your client’s valuation reports can be provided within 14 days of receipt of your client’s instructions and all information required to complete that valuation.

Reach out to us for a confidential, no obligation discussion on how we can assist you meet the business valuation needs of your clients and build value in the business advisory services that you can offer your clients.